Description

Every child loves to draw pictures for their parents and often they become something to treasure and admire for years to come. To My Daddy gives children the opportunity to draw pictures to show just how much they love their daddy, which are collected into one book and can be presented as a gift for Father's Day, birthdays, or just as a treat to show them just how much they are loved. Perfect for any child who loves to doodle, draw and colour, this unique and imaginative gift will make dads everywhere feel extra special.
