William & Catherine Their Lives, Their Wedding

Andrew Morton

Description

On 16 November 2010, the long-awaited engagement of HRH Prince William to Miss Catherine Middleton was formally announced, with a London wedding promised for April 2011. Andrew Morton, famous the world over for his authorized biography of Diana, Princess of Wales, has written a full-length biography of William and his new bride. Morton has followed the prince's life since birth and has unrivalled insight into the royal family. This handsomely produced volume features beautiful colour photographs throughout with a lengthy section devoted specifically to the wedding, making this book both a celebration and keepsake of the most eagerly awaited royal wedding since 1981. The fairy tale nuptials were essential viewing not only in Britain, but worldwide.

Sales Points

Reviews

- '5 stars' - Sunday Express
- 'A wonderful souvenir for anyone who wants to know more about our future king and queen. Illustrated with the latest wedding snaps, this beautiful keepsake is just lovely' - The Sun

Author Biography

Andrew Morton is one of the world's best-known biographers and a leading authority on modern celebrity as well as royalty. His ground-breaking 1992 biography revealed the secret world of Diana, Princess of Wales. Written with her full, though then secret, cooperation, the book changed the way the world looked at the British royal family. Since Diana: Her True Story, he has gone on to write Number 1 Sunday Times and New York Times bestsellers on Monica Lewinsky, Madonna, David and Victoria Beckham, Tom Cruise, Angelina Jolie, and, most recently, 17 Carnations: The Windsors, The Nazis and The Cover-Up. The winner of numerous awards, he divides his time between London and Los Angeles.
