The third instalment in Craig Revel Horwood's frank and funny autobiography takes the reader through the highs and lows of the Strictly Come Dancing star's 'fab-u-lous' life. Join Craig and a host of Strictly stars - including Ore Oduba, Judy Murray, and the unforgettable Ed Balls - and get the real stories from behind the scenes.

The aussie-born judge shares his famously forthright views on the changes in the show's line up - from Bruce Forsyth and Len Goodman's departures to the arrival of Claudia Winkleman and Shirley Ballas - as well as the dancers and the stars.

Away from Strictly, Craig reveals fresh heartache over failed romances, his pain at losing his Dad and how his work kept him from flying to Australia for the funeral. He marks the milestones in his life, including turning fifty and moving to London to live in a 'gorgeous' country pile, as well as going under the knife for a second hip operation plus a few nips and tucks.

With his famous wit and a wealth of backstage gossip and photographs, In Strictest Confidence is the perfect read for all of Craig's fans as well as those of Strictly Come Dancing.

Craig Revel Horwood has been a member of the judging panel on BBC's Strictly Come Dancing since it began in 2004. The 2017 series of Strictly was the show's most popular year in its fourteen-year history, with an average of 11 million viewers every Saturday night. In Strictest Confidence is published to tie-in with Strictly 2018. Craig will be available for interview.
