

The Pocket Poets Series

WORDSWORTH | KIPLING | KEATS | BURNS

Publication date: 3rd November 2016

Michael O'Mara Books

£4.99 each | Paperback

Pocket sized collections of some of the greatest poems ever written.

Featuring a carefully curated selection of work from four of the most celebrated British poets of all time, these handy pocket-sized books will strike a chord in the heart of even the most jaded reader.

From the pin-sharp rhymes of Rudyard Kipling, to the lyrical natural imagery of Wordsworth, the books each include over forty stunning pieces. Be inspired by such well-loved classics as 'Auld Lang Syne', 'I Wondered Lonely as a Cloud', 'Tommy', and 'To a Nightingale'.

The series is convenient, colourful, and collectable, each with an original and insightful introduction by Dominique Enright.

Whether wandering the hills or whiling away an hour waiting for a train, Pocket Poets will keep you company wherever you are, and makes for the perfect gift for a literary loved one.
